Thursday's Growth Management Planning Officials Training is designed for elected and appointed officials who make planning and zoning recommendations and decisions, as well as planning staff.

The series covers the laws, principles and practices that have shaped the planning process in Florida. Officials will receive basic instruction about Florida's planning and growth management system, his/her role and how to do the job more effectively. Peer exchange and discussion are valuable parts of this event.

Topics Include:

- Planning and Growth Management in Florida
- Roles and Responsibilities
- Constitutional and Legal Foundations for Planning
- The Community Building Process
- Decision-making

Session #1: Re-Forming Your Comprehensive Plan

- Evaluating Your Comprehensive Plan
- Organizing and Writing Your Comprehensive Plan

Session #2: Managing Your Land Development Regulations

- Organizing and Writing Land Development Regulations
- Best Practices for Development Review

Presented by: Gene Boles, FAICP

Mr. Boles is a Senior Fellow of the Program for Resource Efficient Communities at the University of Florida.
