

Riding the Wave

A look at coastal land development
in Southwest Florida

Present the

2019 Real Estate Symposium

Thursday, September 19, 2019

8:00 a.m. Registration &
Continental Breakfast

8:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon Program

The Club at Grandezza
11481 Grande Oak Boulevard
Estero, Florida 33965

$35 for members of REIS
and FPZA

$50 for non-members

No charge for FGCU students

AICP credits are pending

Register at www.reis-swfl.org

Seating is limited.

Reservations required by September 16th

Welcome & Commentary

Alexis Crespo, AICP

President, Real Estate Investment Society

Michael Martin, Ph.D.

President, Florida Gulf Coast University

Shelton Weeks, Ph.D.

Chair/Professor, Dept. of Finance, Lutgert College of Business

Presentations

Construction and Building in Coastal Areas

Chris Kennedy,

Vice President, Suffolk

Permitting and Regulatory Issues

Chester Young,

Senior Project Manager, Hans Wilson & Associates

Floodplain Management and Flood Zone Mapping

Elizabeth A. Fountain,

Vice President, J.R. Evans Engineering, P.A.

Sea Level Rise and Local Government Compacts

Dr. Michael Saverese,

Professor of Marine Science, Coastal Watershed Institute, FGCU

Local Panel Discussion

Moderated by Sean Ellis, Esq., Roetzel & Andress

John Gucciardo, TPI Hospitality / Margaritaville Resort

Anthony Solomon, The Ronto Group

**plus development consultants and government officials to be announced soon**

Sponsored by

Co-Sponsored by

